II. Television and Advertising Income

a) Rights for television transmission, film and video as well as advertising in sports halls (see also IHF Regulations on Advertising)

The IHF is the sole contractual partner for all television, advertising and marketing rights related to the staging of an IHF championship. Therefore, the IHF holds the following rights on IHF events:

- Television
- Film and video
- Advertising on and around the field of play
- Advertising on the grounds, premises and entrances of the venues

The organiser of an IHF event may request to acquire the aforementioned rights from the IHF.

The IHF receives the revenues resulting from the contracts concluded to sell the aforementioned rights. The IHF may delegate this task to a dedicated agency and contract with a partner to hold any of the aforementioned rights.

In addition, the IHF holds the exclusive merchandising rights for IHF World Championships.

Further details are to be found in the IHF Bid and Event Manual and in the contract signed between the IHF and the organiser of an IHF event on the organisation of the event concerned.

b) Advertising on jerseys

As mentioned in Article 3.4 of the Regulations on Advertising, the outer side of sleeves is reserved exclusively for IHF advertising without financial participation by the Member Federations/clubs.

The advertising on the clothes worn by referees and IHF officials is reserved for the IHF, also with no financial participation by the Member Federations/clubs.

ARTICLE 3

III. Additional Income

Practices regarding additional income of the IHF are included in the individual regulations and rules.

ARTICLE 4

IV. Code of Practice

At the beginning of each Olympic period the Treasurer shall establish a four-year financial plan, which he/she shall submit to the Council for adoption and to the Congress for recognition.

For this purpose the Chairpersons of the Commissions provide the Treasurer with documents on financial questions in their specific field.

The individual yearly budgets shall be adopted by the Council on the recommendation of the Treasurer. Within the frame of their adopted budgets the Chairpersons of the Commissions are free to use single amounts. Amounts which exceed this budget need to be approved by the Council.

For any other expenses from the yearly budget the following right of disposal shall apply:

- the General Director for single amounts up to CHF 1,000.–
- the President, the first Vice-President and the Treasurer for single amounts up to CHF 10,000.–
- the Executive Committee for unlimited budget
- the Council for any other financial disposition.

VI. IHF Solidarity Fund

6.1. Purpose

The IHF Solidarity Fund aims to financially support junior and youth national teams in order to enable them to participate in IHF World Championships.

The IHF Solidarity Fund shall especially benefit Emerging and Developed National Federations which do not have the financial means to participate in IHF Junior and Youth World Championships.

6.2. Distribution and use of funds

The IHF Solidarity Fund is approved by the Executive Committee and administered by the Head Office. The funds shall be distributed to the National Federations after reviewing each situation case by case.

The funds distributed shall solely be used for covering the travel/accommodation expenses of junior and/or youth national teams of the National Federations receiving the funds.

The receiving National Federations shall submit all the invoices and proofs connected to such expenses in order to receive the funds from the IHF.

6.3. Income

a) Contribution due to participation in IHF Senior World Championships

In accordance with Article 6.2.3 (Chapter 2) of the Regulations for IHF Competitions, each team participating in an IHF Senior World Championship shall make the following contribution to the IHF Solidarity Fund:

- Men's World Championship: CHF 25.- per match day and person (for 18 persons)
- Women's World Championship: CHF 15.- per match day and person (for 18 persons).

b) Donation

Any National Federation may contribute an amount of its choice to the IHF Solidarity Fund at any time. Such donation shall be the object of a contract between the IHF and the donor.

The donor must be able to prove the origin of the funds transferred to the IHF Solidarity Fund, if requested by the IHF.

A donation made by any National Federation will not result in any financial or natural advantage given by the IHF to the National Federation concerned.

Regulations for Travel Expenses

ARTICLE 1

I. General

- 1.1. These Regulations stipulate the terms for reimbursement of costs and expenses to honorary and full-time employees as well as guests of the International Handball Federation (IHF), in connection with travel on behalf or by invitation of the IHF.
- 1.2. The organisation and reservation of journeys in principle lies within the jurisdiction of the IHF Head Office. An authorisation for reservations made by oneself must be obtained beforehand.
- 1.3. All possible reductions and advantages are to be taken into account when planning an event or booking travel arrangements. The least expensive means of transport always has to be billed.
- 1.4. Whenever possible, receipts are to be presented.
- 1.5. If a National Federation, a club, or similar is taking over a part of the costs, only the difference is to be presented to the IHF.
- 1.6. Claims on the IHF must be presented within three months after completion of the journey.
- 1.7. The reimbursements mentioned in these Regulations shall be made either in US dollars ($), euro (€) or Swiss francs (CHF). The IHF may determine the most suitable currency in each case.
- 1.8. Deviations from these Regulations are only allowed with the Executive Committee's approval.

II. Means of Transport

The following count as means of transport:

- 2.1. Train, boat or bus
